

FOREST HILLS NEIGHBORHOOD MEETING MINUTES

November 13, 2007

Submitted by Chuck Seigel, FHNA Secretary

The regular Meeting of the Forest Hills Neighborhood Association was held on November 13, 2007 at the Forest Hills Community Center. The meeting was called to order at 7:04 p.m. After a moment of silence, members and guests recited the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mary Mooney introduced speaker Professor Robert Northrop, a renowned environmentalist and conservationist. He presented a slide show of trees (urban forestry) in our neighborhood and gave an informative, customized lecture. More information can be found on Professor Northrop's website: urban.ifas.ufl.edu

President's Report

President Jessie Brown discussed the possibility of a Sports Authority event being held at the Babe Zaharius Golf Course Clubhouse. The majority of the membership voted in favor of such an event. Jessie also reminded us about the upcoming "Paint your Heart Out" event in April.

Crime Watch:

Jerry Keith, Director of Crime Watch has deterrent decals for sale and mentioned the police have a service called Vacation watch. Jerry Keith can be reached for further information at his Crime Watch link on the official "FHNA-ONLINE.ORG" website. Please remember to visit there regularly for announcements and changes.

Gail Matson made mention that long-standing member, previous Board of Directors member and a diligent advocate of the Golf Course, Pat Austin-Dillon, was leaving for Kansas to be near her son and family. She will be missed.

New Business:

A majority of the membership showed an interest and voted for the BOD to check with the city about the possibility of a dog park in the neighborhood.

The door prize drawing was held.

Secretary's Report:

The minutes of September 11, 2007 General meeting, submitted by Lucille Keith, were read by members. A motion was made, seconded and carried unopposed be accepted as written.

Treasurer's Report:

None was presented.

Adjournment:

The meeting was adjourned 8:27 p.m.